

Second Announcement:

33rd Annual Conference of the South African Association of Botanists (SAAB)

University of Cape Town
14 - 18 January 2007.

You are invited to log on to www.saab2007.uct.ac.za for details and the registration form.

Highlights include

- Invited Speakers:
  - Mark Westoby (Macquarie University, Australia)
  - Hans Lambers (University of Western Australia)
  - Bob Scholes (C.S.I.R Pretoria)
- Varied scientific programme with parallel sessions divided up into common themes.
- Post-conference workshops combined with excursions allowing for the development of themes from the conference.
  - Conservation Narratives and Landscape History
Timm Hoffman and Lindsey Gillson from the Leslie Hill Institute for Plant Conservation.
  - Climate Change
Guy Midgley and colleagues at SANBI.
  - Fynbos: the future?
William Bond and Jeremy Midgley from the Botany Department at UCT
  - Tackling invasive alien plants: Integrating biological control with other control methods
Dave Richardson from the Centre for Invasion Biology at Stellenbosch University and John Hoffmann from the Zoology department at UCT.
  - CREW (Custodians of Rare and Endangered Wildflowers programme) Fieldtrip
Domitilla Raimondo, Ismail Ebrahim, and Caitlin Von Witt From SANBI
- Meet and Greet, trip to the Waterfront, SAAB dinner.
- Evening picnic at Kirstenbosch National Botanical Gardens

The deadline for submission of abstracts for inclusion in the conference programme is Wednesday 15 November 2006.

For any further information, please contact the organising committee
saab2007@botzoo.uct.ac.za
www.saab2007.uct.ac.za

